

International Photography Contest:

“Let’s stand up for #humanity”

Goal of the contest:

We are all aware of the difficulty of living in an era of intense wars across the world. Therefore, this photography contest aims to reveal hard conditions of people who have been forced to leave their countries and to raise awareness of European people who might not be cognizant of such.

The true objective of the contest is to picture and make public the actions taken for the refugees, along with displaying values that these people bring into societies. Taking such initiatives, we plan to engage attention of the public opinion. To this respect, we present this contest as a religious organization to every one regardless of religion or race.

Working Process:

Our editorial staff will publish eligible photographs daily on our Facebook pages

(<https://www.facebook.com/igmgorgkgk>) and (<https://www.facebook.com/igmg.genclik>). When the contest is over three best photo owners will be awarded by our juries.
